

GLACIAL VOCABULARY

Supplied by a unique collection of people, these lists offer a range of interpretations about glaciers. This element of the project is part of an ongoing enquiry into the written description of natural landscapes.

ice	immense	layered	torque	sublime	barometer	cold
snow	momentum	blue	unguent	latent	cauldron	icy melt	fragile	flowing	shear	profound	ladder	important calving	ancient	erosive	sheer	ageless	recede	relevant crevasse	threatened	archive	boss	elemental	transmogrify	interesting moraine	threatening	cold	debris	minacious	turquoise	beautiful

GLACIAL VOCABULARY 1:

List six words you would use to describe a glacier

Prof. Dr. A. Ohmura PRESIDENT International Glaciological Society	Ben Saunders Polar Explorer Endurance Athlete	Dr. Eric Wolff Glacier Chemist British Antarctic Survey	Robert Macfarlane Writer	Dr. Alun Hubbard Glaciologist Mountaineer	Paul Deegan Everest Mountaineer Author	Prof. J. A. Dowdeswell DIRECTOR Scott Polar Research Institute
---	--	---	------------------------------------	--	---	--